Principal's Message:

Dear Parents/Guardians,

As we continue to move through this season of Advent, we celebrate many saints. Today is the feast of St. Lucy whose name means light and this makes her a perfect Advent saint. Lucy (Lucia) was a third-century Italian woman who was martyred because she dedicated her life to Jesus.

Students are continuing to participate in many Advent traditions. Around the school you will see these symbols—Advent wreaths, Jesse trees, giving trees.

This will be the last newsletter of 2006; we will not have another newsletter until Wednesday, January 10, 2007.

We ask that you pray for the family of Jon-Anthony Lacayo (7th), whose grandfather, Juan Lacayo, passed away last Friday.

From the faculty and staff, we hope your holidays are filled with special blessings and a new year filled with peace and good health.

Sincerely,

Arleen Guaraglia
Principal
