Rainy Morning Drop-off:

The rainy season will soon be upon us. Morning drop-off procedures are still the same. Student drop-off is still on 29th Street; students will then walk to the 29th Street door to enter the building. Adults will be supervising the students entrance to school. On rainy days after 7:45 a.m., all students report directly to their classroom.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Dick Palomarez, grandfather to Brianna (6th) and Mireya (2nd) Reyes. Mr. Palomarez is also the uncle of Vera Cueba and Marvin Cortes; great-uncle of Daniel Cortes (5th) and Karina Cortes (3rd) and Michael Perea (3rd) and Daniel Perea (1st).

When you enroll and use their RED card, Target donates up to 1% of every purchase made with their RED card to our school. As more people join the program, the funds can really add up.

For people to participate in Take Charge of Education, all you need is a RED card and to designate St. Paul's online at Target.com/tcoe or by calling 1-800-316-6142.
