News Notes:

Kindergarten Applications:

If you are going to enroll a child in next year's Kindergarten class, applications are due December 16, 2009. Please make sure all paperwork is in the office by this deadline.

Alternate Dress:

Friday, December 11 is our annual red, white and green day. Students may come to school wearing these colors or any Christmas themed clothing.

Friday, December 18—Students may have Alternate Dress.

For the Christmas Concert—December 17 at 6:30 p.m.—Students are asked to wear “Sunday best” clothes—appropriate for Church. Jeans should not be worn. If this is a problem, students can wear their dress up uniform.

Toys for Tots:

During this Advent season, St. Paul's families are again asked to support San Francisco Fire Department Toys for Tots program. The barrel is located in the school lobby. Any donation of new toys is greatly appreciated. Thank you in advance for your generosity. You have been very supportive of all our outreach projects. We will be collecting until Thursday, December 17th.

eScrip:

If Ivania Zelaya is supporting your family with eScrip purchases, please contact the office so that your family can receive credit.

Tuition:

Those families who chose the two payment tuition plan need to send in the second payment. The payment is past due.

Extended Care:

Extended Care billing went home last Friday Dec. 4th. Payment is due Wednesday Dec. 15th. Any questions about your billing please contact Mary Wurm Extended Care Director either by calling the office or emailing her at mwurm@stpaulsf.net.

Yearbook:

Mrs. Olivo needs pictures for our lovely yearbook. Please send in pictures on a disc. You also can email them to her at cynthia94110@msn.com. Pictures taken at field trips, sporting events, school picnic, Halloween, etc. She will be collecting pictures throughout the year up until Mar. 31st, 2010.
