

STUDENT LEARNING EXPECTATIONS

The community of St. Paul's Church and School strives to graduate students who are:

Active, faith-filled Catholic Christians who:

1. are developing a sound conscience by making moral choices.
2. understand Catholic teachings and practices.
3. worship and pray as a Catholic community.
4. participate in service to the Church, family and community.

Life-long learners who:

1. demonstrate a solid foundation in core subjects.
2. use current technology intelligently and responsibly.
3. utilize organizational skills.
4. take responsibility for their own learning.
5. observe, experiment and discover to reach solutions critically and creatively.

Responsible community members who:

1. demonstrate respect for cultural differences.
2. work and play cooperatively, demonstrating tolerance, courtesy and respect.
3. show an interest in and awareness of global issues.
4. respect the environment and act as stewards of the earth.

Effective communicators who:

1. express written thoughts clearly, using correct grammar and mechanics.
2. speak clearly.
3. exhibit listening skills.
4. express personal opinions respectfully.
5. can resolve conflicts peacefully.